The bench also came to the conclusion that the presents and gifts given at the time of marriage to Sanjiv or his family members could not be termed as dowry.

The court, hearing Dr LP Misra for the petitioner and counsel for the complainant and state, had reserved its verdict on December 1 last. The judgement was delivered in the open court on Tuesday.

Addl Adv general: Jaideep Narain Mathur, has been appointed additional advocate general by the state government.

Born in 1963, Jaideep had his education at La Martiner College, Lucknow and did his law graduation from Lucknow university.

He started practicing in the high court in 1988 under his father Mr PN Mathur, senior advocate and former president of Oudh Bar Association, Lucknow bench.
