Differing views among WC on SPMVV issue stall proceedings

Tirupati, July 12: Differences between Andhra Pradesh Women Commission(WC) Chairperson and a member stalled the inquiry in Sri Padvavathi Mahila Visva Vidyalam(SPMVV) here today.

A three-member AP Women Commission team headed by Merie Ravindranath arrived here to conduct a probe into the allegation, that Teaching Staff Association Secretary K Murugaiah misbehaved with the University Vice Chancellor Venna Nobel Dass on April 30, 2007.

However, in the enquiry, a Commission member Padmajan Reddy alleged that the Chairperson had accepted bribe and conducted a partial enquiry on the issue without consulting other members.

The Chairperson, however, denied the member's allegation and countered that it was Ms Reddy, who was conducting a partial inquiry in the issue.

Talking to newspersons seperately, Ms Ravindranath and Ms Reddy said they would lodge a complaint to the Chief Minister Y S Rajasekhara Reddy about the developments .

About 150 teaching and non-teaching staff resorted to agitation against the Chairperson at Padmavathi Guest House, the venue of the press conference and stopped her vehicle from leaving the premises.

Ms Reddy said the issue would, however, be discussed in the Commission meeting on July 18 at Hyderabad.
